

A Sale of all Sorts of Plate, Jewels, and other Curiosities, viz.

Basons, Ewers, Monteaths, Punch-Bowls, Salvers, Dressing-Plate, Sconces, Candlesticks, Tea-Pots, Casters, Salts, Tankards, &c.

On these Conditions following, viz.

T Here will be Sold by the Goldsmiths hereafter named 20000 Tickets at 2s. 6d. a Piece, amounting in the whole to 2500l. To Answer which Sum, there will be the like Value of Plate, Jewels, and other Curiosities (abating only 10l. per cent. for the Trouble and Charge in the Undertaking) divided into 500 Advantagious Tickets, to be Mixed with 19500 Blank Tickets, the Values of the Advantagious Tickets are as follow, viz.

1 of	100
1 of	80
1 of	60
2 of 50l. each	100
2 of 40	80
3 of 30	90
4 of 25	100
6 of 20	120
12 of 15	180
20 of 10	200
25 of 8	200
40 of 5	200
100 of 3	300
140 of 2	280
143 of 1	143
500	2233

And to the First Blank Ticket that shall be drawn out } of the Box, a Benefit of } 10

To the First Blank Ticket that shall be drawn after all } the Advantagious Tickets are drawn, a Benefit of Seven } Pounds; but if the last Ticket should happen to be an Ad- } vantagious Ticket, then the Benefit to the Blank Ticket } that is drawn next before the said Advantagious Ticket. } 07

2250

To prevent all Scruples and Doubts as to the Value of these Goods thus exposed to Sale, the several Goldsmiths concerned do promise to turn any of the said Goods into ready Money within Twenty four Hours after delivering of such Goods to such Persons as shall be Proprietors thereof; in this manner, viz. If Plate, the full value

A

thereof

thereof, after reasonable Allowance deducted for the Fashion; for Jewels and Curiosities not less than $\frac{3}{4}$, for the Performance of which the said Goldsmiths have given Security, as also for the Repayment of the Money for the Tickets if not given out within the time limited. To the Trustee, Mr. James Marmyon at the Golden Lyon against Fetter-Lane, in Fleet-street, Goldsmith.

And for the equal and exact mixing of the Blank and Advantagious Tickets, this Method shall be observed in the Presence of the Trustee and Goldsmiths, (viz.) The Blank Tickets shall be divided into 500 Heaps or Parcels, every of which Parcel to consist of 39 Blanks in the middle of each Parcel shall be put one of the Advantagious Tickets, and then all well jumbled together, and put into a Box and Sealed up.

Then shall the 20000 Numbred Tickets be mixed well together, and put into another Box, and Sealed up likewise, both which Boxes at the same time shall be Locked up in a Strong Chest until the time of Drawing, of which notice shall be given, and shall be performed in that Regular and approved Method, by Childrens Drawing Clerks and Managers Opening, Declaring, Entering, Signing, and Filling up all the Advantagious Tickets so as to give Satisfaction to all Persons concerned.

And if it should happen that within the time limited, the whole Number of Tickets should not be Completed, the Sale shall yet be made for those that shall be bought, and the Advantagious Tickets proportioned to the Number of Tickets Sold; of which an exact Calculation shall be made, and to whose Share any or all of the said Plate, Jewels, &c. shall fall; Security is given to the Trustee for the Delivery of the same accordingly.

For the Conveniency of Dispersing these Tickets for the Ease of the Byers, Mr. John Spackman, near Northumberland-House, Mr. John Smith, near Norfolk-street, in the Strand, Mr. Joseph Wilton, against St. Dunstan's Church, Mr. James Marmyon, at the Golden Lyon, next Ram-Alley, in Fleet-street, Mr. Nathanael Ragdale, at the King's-Head, in Cheapside, against Gutter-Lane, Mr. Peter Lupert, at the Golden Lyon, the upper end of Lumbard-street, Mr. Moses Sicklemore, at the Star, at St. Margarets-Hill Southwark, Goldsmiths, are Appointed to receive all Money to be paid for the said Tickets and to give out the said Numbred Tickets who have undertaken to be answerable for the money by them Received, and have given Security for the due Performance of the same.

These Tickets will begin to be Delivered out at 2 s. 6 d. a Piece by the several Goldsmiths aforesaid, by the 14th. day of February, 1693. being Valentines-day, and 'tis not doubted but to be completed within Three Months at farthest, from the First of March next, but 'tis hoped it may be completed by Easter, which if so, the Trustee and Goldsmiths will meet and take due Care for the equal Mixing, putting into Boxes, and Sealing up all the Tickets as aforesaid, and Appoint the Time and Place to begin to Draw them out, of which Publick Notice shall be given, and shall continue Daily, till all the Tickets shall be Drawn: And also Order the placing of the Goods, so as to be ready to deliver to such Persons or their Assigns as shall bring such Advantagious Tickets, which if agreeing with the Number of the Ticket declared at the time of Drawing, the Plate, Jewels, or Curiosities shall forthwith be delivered free from farther Charge.

So that whoever is possessed of any of these Numbred Tickets Signed by the Goldsmiths, may be satisfied, that another Ticket of the same Number, and marked as that is, which he is possessed off, shall for him be put in the Box, and Drawn for him whether Present or Absent, and be sure what Part of the Plate, Jewels, or Curiosities falls to his Share upon producing his Ticket. shall be delivered to him as aforesaid.